THE Prez Sez:

Howdy everyone....We've got new cowpokes in the saddle, and we're off to a roaring start. I would like to thank Bear Bone for his guidance and leadership over the past 2 years while serving as our President. He did a great job and applied the same fortitude as that during his tenure as Match Director.

I would also like to thank Katastrophe Kate for updating our information page in the Daily Courier. SASS has been notified of our club changes and our upcoming Battle of Rogue River in June. Kate was also installed as a new Director on the JCSA Board. Congratulations! Speaking of JCSA, The Merlin Marauders donated $500 for the purchase of new chairs, which will definitely come in handy during our annual match. A big thank you also goes to Wimpy and Whiney YOHO (The Lindholms) for donating 50 folding chairs to our club, some of which will be donated to JCSA. These will also come in handy all year long

Mark your calendars for several upcoming events. We have scheduled a range/clubhouse clean-up for Sunday, January 30th starting at 10 a.m. We plan to pick up shotgun hulls and also move some of our props to facilitate easier access. We have scheduled a Merlin Marauder Garage sale on March 18 and 19 at JCSA. So, clean out your garages and barns and help us come up with some extra funds to apply towards our annual match and capital improvement projects.

Our range house has a new combination code. Members in good standing may contact our Secretary, Ima Horsinaround for the new combination. Speaking of the range house, JCSA has approved our plans to construct a storage facility for our targets. Runnin' Wild, I am sure, has his hammer ready.

Last but not least, we are planning to have some theme shoots this year, so be prepared for some FUN. Valentines Day in February obviously brings hearts to mind, but also be sure to wear RED.

Stay tuned...till next month, when we will update you on this year's Ladies Match (planned for May 2011).

Ride tall and shoot straight Yer Prez Molly b'Dam

THE MERLIN MARAUDERS WEBSITE

Is expanding all the time. The site is located at: www.merlinmaraudercowboys.com Take a look and tell your friends about it! It is (as the most over-worked word in the English language states.....) AWESOME !!! As was noted last month, the problem with our "domain name" has been resolved and those that were trying to get onto our website using the old www.merlinmarauders.com as well as the alternate www.merlinmarauders.org can now find us using those links once again.

The Battle of Rogue River 2011

Planning continues and many of the details have been worked out to the committee's satisfaction, and we hope, to the satisfaction of everyone who will be shooting the match with us.

We are already off and running, with a couple of planning meetings already behind us. We are planning for 180 shooters! Runnin' Wild has scheduled our next Annual Match Meeting for Wednesday January 19th, at ELMER'S Restaurant at 6:30. We need your support, so please plan to attend if at all possible.

More Club Notes...

Correction on last month's article on the Christmas party: Santa arrived courtesy of Rogue River Police Chief Ken Lewis, as the fire department was already committed.

Plans for the "Ladies Only Clinic" are going forward, and the date and location are being worked out. At this time JCSA will not waive the daily range fee for the ladies "shoot". But alternate locations are being "scouted" if they will not reverse their decision.

JCSA NEWS : Imnaha Chuck:

JCSA Has approved our request and plans to build a storage shed for our targets along the berm wall at stage #2. Runnin' Wild submitted drawings for the facility that will attach to the berm wall and "Livery" façade. This will get our target steel out of the range house.

JCSA has requested that the Sub-Clubs assist with the purchase of 100 folding chairs for use in the Indoor Range to replace the flimsy plastic stacking chairs now in use and provide for more seating for events such as our annual Battle of Rogue River. The club has pledged $500 for this, and individual Merlin Marauder members have also pledged amounts from $100 to $300 for a total of $1300 from the Cowboys. . Hopefully, the other clubs at JCSA will step up to the plate as well. In addition,

The JCSA Board has decided to forgo supporting the Sportsman's Show at the Medford Fairground coming up in the last weekend in February, due to the increased costs/fees they are requiring for a booth. Manning the JCSA booth was discussed at the January Marauders Club meeting, where volunteers were solicited. This will now not be required.

Dispatches From the Territorial Governor

Well, here we are at the top of a New Year! We are looking at having the biggest and best "Battle of Rogue River" we've ever put on next June, and we've been promised support in that endeavor from clubs all over Oregon, Washington and Northern California.

I hope that everyone had a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.... (No, none of that wishy-washy "seasons greetings" stuff....you KNOW I'm not politically correct) I don't usually plug any commercial enterprises (but my own) but I can't resist urging anyone that hasn't gone to see the new re-make of the movie "True Grit" to do so. Gaye Abandon and I went to see it the day after it came out (after being TOLD to go see it by Delta Queen – You don't disobey Delta Queen) Then, on the 26th, a dozen Marauders gathered at the box office, (properly dressed, of course) and we saw it AGAIN! Grittier than the Duke's version, but closer, I'm told, to the book. Also noticed that Big John wore the eye patch on his LEFT eye, and Jeff Bridges wore it on the RIGHT... Hmmmm. Guess their “master” eyes are different.... Anyway, it was a great movie and dinner party.

One of the things that was discussed at the T/G Summit was the “updating/correcting” of the wording on some of the rulings that have been a part of our sport for some time. The Range Officer (RO) Committee is in the midst of seeing to it that the Shooters Handbook and the R.O.1 and R.O. 2 Course Handbooks all say the same thing. A job I wouldn't want, for sure. This is just a note to let you know that if you find any discrepancies from one “manual” to another they ARE being corrected.

Awhile back I made mention of “illegally acquired ammunition”, where a shooter runs out of (for instance) shotgun shells, and a friend hands him/her some to finish the shooting string. At that time there was some question as to the penalty. Well, it's been clarified. It's a “procedural”. Shooter's handbook page 21: Failure to stage guns or ammunition at the designated position(s)/location(s) is the fault of the competitor and scored as a procedural unless the competitor is able to correct the situation, unassisted, while in the process of completing the stage under time. The penalty for using "illegally acquired" ammunition (i.e. NOT carried to the line/staged by the shooter in an approved manner) will be a PROCEDURAL. Any targets hit using that ammo will be scored as MISSES. NO adjustments will be made to the stage raw time. It is also now on page 21 of the R.O.1 manual. Hmmmm. Same page, both handbooks... The committee's doin' GOOD!

Want some MORE “Speakin' COWBOY” ?:

Hog Ranch: Nope, no pigs! It's an establishment pretending to be a ranch, but actually supplying whiskey and whores to soldiers. In the 1870's the Hayes administration prohibited liquor sales at Western military posts. (Yes, this was undoubtedly at the urging of President Hayes' WIFE, devout tea-totaler who was known near and far as “Lemonade Lucy”). The soldiers responded by going to the nearest “hog ranch” for satisfaction.

And while we're in the “H's”:

Hog Leg: Well, we all know it means a large pistol, but did you know that it ORIGINALLY applied only to the Colt BISLEY?

Hogback: A steep, narrow ridge that arcs back to earth. Also sometimes referred to a horse that was the exact opposite of a swayback.

Hoodlum Wagon: The Bed wagon on a trail drive. Often just referred to as a Hoodlum, it carried the bedding and other supplies NOT carried on the chuck wagon. Its driver, usually the fellow that watched the horses at night, was called the “Hood”.

Hooky Bobbing: Here's one I KNOW ya' don't know: Mostly in the Pacific North West and Alaska, it was catching a ride by grabbing onto the rear of a moving vehicle and being pulled along on your boots!
