THE Prez Sez:

As everyone is aware by now, three of our very active cowboy shooters have decided to take a hiatus from cowboy action shooting. All three were highly instrumental in ensuring that the 7th Battle of Rogue River was a success, and we thank them for all of their hard work. We also know that their personal lives and issues should come first. Johnny Dingus, Runnin' Wild and Ima Horsinaround, we miss you, and hope that you will soon be back.

A well deserved rest was needed for all of us, and a big pat on the back goes to each and every one of our members for helping to make our annual match a memorable one.

I would also like to thank Bear Bone Smith, Bobbin' Along Daisy and Fairweather Kate for stepping up and taking the Match Director, Secretary and Member At Large positions (respectively). All three were given the oath of office at our July 12th General Meeting. Congratulations to all.

Kudos to Katastrophe Kate, who is now the new editor of the JCSA Sportster Newsletter. You'll do a great job. Kate also volunteered to assist Johnny Dingus and Library Babbage in maintaining the Merlin Marauder web site. Thank you Kate.

We are gearing up for the 2012 Battle of Rogue River and the SASS Oregon

State Championship Match. The match is scheduled for June 8th, 9th and 10th, 2012. Our 2012 Match Committee has scheduled the first planning meeting for September 21, 2011. We will need everyone's help to plan and run this match. Library Babbage is already working on getting us a storage locker for some of our props and prizes. Thank you Library. Stay tuned everyone...

Till next month when we meet at the Black Bear Diner... Ride tall and shoot straight. Yer Prez...Molly b'Dam

JCSA NEWS : Imnaha Chuck:

The JCSA newsletter, "The Sport Shooter" has a new editor-in-chief, publisher, reporter, copy and layout-paste up person effective with the next issue, and it's our own Katastrophe Kate! (Sheri Pool).

If you are a JCSA member you will already have received the CURRENT edition in the mail. If not, pick up a free copy in the JCSA Range House. The Merlin Marauders are prominently displayed on both the entire front page and also on page 5. The front cover tells of our just-completed 7th Annual Battle of Rogue River, while the article on page five covers our recent ladies' clinic.

The JCSA Board wants to thank Runnin' Wild for his work in re-building the women's showers, despite what one member of the executive board said to him.

We've been informed that the gravel pit is being re-opened, so be careful and watch for large truck traffic on the roadway into the range.

SASS RO 1 Class: Marshal Law and Bear Bone Smith will be conducting an RO1 class at the JCSA classroom on August 21st. Class starts at 10:00AM and will run until approximately 2:30PM. Cost is $10.00 which covers testing and the RO1 Pin from SASS. Pay at the door/sign-in. You might want to bring a sack lunch. This class is open to all SASS members, and may be taken free of charge to those who have taken it in the past and wish to take a "refresher". (There have been a LOT of rule changes over the past few years) Successful completion of the RO1 course (basic CAS safety) is, of course, required before taking the RO2 (Range Officer) course.

Match Stage Setup for August 6th:

- Stage 1– Molly b'Dam
- Stage 2 – Bear Bone Smith
- Stage 3 – Bear Bone Smith
- Stage 4 – Lonesome Rose
- Stage 5 – Britt Ponsett

Dispatches From the Territorial Governor

Well, The 2011 Battle of Rogue River is now in the history books..... For a club of our size, I can't imagine the presentation of a finer annual match. As most of you know, Palaver Pete, SASS #4375, a Life Member and SASS Regulator, will be writing up the match for the Cowboy Chronicle. I've seen a draft of the article that he has submitted to Tex and though I'm sworn to secrecy, I can tell you that he's done us proud. A couple of quotes I can give you: "Merlin Marauders put on one of the best shoots I have attended in 18 years of Cowboy Action Shooting" and "Essentially, this shoot turned out to be the Comin' At ' Cha of the West Coast!! Can't say more than that... but I've worked up a package to submit to SASS to be considered for the Annual "Wooly Award" for best Club Annual Match for 2011. The Wooly Awards are presented at the annual SASS Convention in December, in Las Vegas, at the Riviera Hotel. Thank you, every Merlin Marauder Member, for making this the memorable event that it was....

Ready for more "Cow Speak"??

In the S's:

Slick-Heeled: Among cowboys, a way of describing a man who's not wearing spurs.

Slip Gun: A revolver fixed to fire when the thumb is slipped off the hammer. Usually the trigger was made non-functional, the spur on the hammer lowered and the barrel sawed off so the pistol would fit in the pants pocket.

Slow Elk: Beef from another man's cow, taken without his consent. It was said of many an old-time cattleman that he'd never tasted his own beef, unless it was at another man's table... (Also known as "big antelope")

Snirt: A mixture of snow and dirt, such as you might get in the Northern Plains during the Spring thaw. Another "combination" word, like SMOG.

Snaky: A way of speaking of a man who is devious, shady, treacherous.... (Sorry TJ)

Spotted Pup: Rice Pudding, rice, or tapioca cooked with raisins.

Sweetwater Jack: (Still no definition or polite description)
