THE 2013 OREGON STATE MATCH... ALL OVER BUT THE SHOUTING, NOW...

By all reports from the folks shooting it, the match was our best yet. Smoothest-running, more stages (with the 4 Plainsman and 4 Wild Bunch stages added to the 12 "Main Match" stages) and more SIDE matches than we've ever presented. .

The catering was outstanding, with the food hot and tasty and a much smoother "flow" of those eager to fill their bellies was created and maintained than we managed in previous years.. Hats off to the "worker bees" that made it all possible! The money brought in from the sale of Tule Spud's gun rig and cowboy clothing, along with that from the "Soiled Dove" contest, netted the cancer fund $1681.00 I'm also told that the Young Marines made over $1800 for their "brass pickin' efforts" from all donations....

Yes, more "side-matches" this year, and a special thanks to Riverdog and Rogue Rascal for their hard work in organizing and running these events. Our "Costume and Entertainment maven", Powder River Rose, was EVERYWHERE! Match Director, Mountain Grizz was was grizzing (Oop.Sorry " whizzing) all over the place, also... (Maybe I should re-phrase that whizzing thing... Oh to hell with it.....

Hope you all got a chance to try out Just Bill's GREAT "Old Time Shooting Gallery". That was parked by stage #5... Bill is amazing! (Of course we KNOW that... anyone who also built a 1901 Curved-dash OLDSMOBILE from scratch HAS to be amazing.....) An article on the gallery, in the Cowboy Chronicle, will be published very soon.

Dispatches From The Territorial Governor

Just laying around, recovering from a VERY busy month or so... State Match over and done with,,, (Very Successfully, by all of you Marauders, I might add), The re-enactments that a lot of M/M folk are involved in with the State of Jefferson Vigilance Committee, conducted with verve and panache (Didn't think I knew THOSE words, did ya;?) Gleaning info from the SASS T/G Wire I hear that there is some "unrest" in the "B" Western ranks, with discussions about possibly changing the NAME of the category from "B" Western" to "Silver Screen Heroes" .It seems that there are more and more folks shooting the category that don't want to go with the spirit of the category (FANCY and FLASHY!) and are entering it in a "minimalist manner" (one concho on each holster, holsters worn at the crotch and not out on the hips where they BELONG, spurs with teeny "cavalry" rowels "engineer hats", etc) Apparently there is enough brouhaha going on to warrant some discussion and voting at the next T/G Summit in December in Branson, at the 2013 SASS Convention.. There always seems to be folks that let the spirit of the category be pushed aside for the "buckle"... A shame. What do YOU think??
