The Prez Sez:

Howdy!

Now rather than subject you to my ramblings every month, I thought it would be fun to profile members of the club's team and leadership. So, for our first snapshot profile in cowboyship, here a few words about our VP, CHP Shot and his better half, Delta Queen (a.k.a Ron & Dianne Dreher).

CHP Shot joined SASS in Oct. '98 after Snaggletooth, a customer of his wife (she's a barber, as well as a creative baker, skilled costumer, stained glass artist, and much more) mentioned that CAS might be something her husband would like. Recalls CHP Shot (who has been shooting since he was 14, became a real CHP officer and retired in '96 after 27 years, and was at the time with the San Diego Harbor Police), "I went to the End of Trail in Norco and immediately said, "Oh my God, yes!" He immediately joined the Coto Cowboys (now just the Cowboys) and three other SoCal clubs ("Put in a lot of overtime to collect my gear.")

On one of their seven riverboat cruises (hence Delta Queen's alias), they met Sweetwater Jack and Gaye Abandon and later visited Southwest Oregon. So, upon CHP Shot's 2004 retirement from the SDHP after 8 years, they moved to Cave Junction in 2007 and joined the Merlin Marauders.

"I enjoy the shooting, the guys and gals, and the great comradery," says CHP Shot. And he was not deterred when a retinal detachment in his right eye caused him to practice for months loading, handling, and firing his long guns from the left.

Avid Hopalong Cassidy fans, in a room of Hoppy memorabilia at their home, they have a plaque by L. N. Wade's The Cowboy Code. It reads, "Respect our flag and country, read the Good Book, look 'em in the eye, and always tell 'em the truth." After meeting CHP Shot and Delta Queen, you'd want to add, "And share a smile and a laugh."

Ride easy,

— Britt

Dispatches From The Territorial Governor

I've been asked the question: "Has there ever been a ruling on allowing a shooter to apply a felt pad (approx. 1/8" thick) to the operating lever of a double barrel shotgun? It clearly is an external modification but didn't know if this had been hashed over in the past?" Answer per PaleWolf: "NO. ...and if it is NOT LISTED as BEING allowed, it ain't."

I've also been asked: "When do the changes passed at the Territorial Governor Summit take effect?" Answer, (also from PaleWolf) "Usually at Winter Range (February)...some will be implemented immediately by most clubs at their club matches, especially deletion of violations/penalties."

AND, SPEAKING OF ANSWERS FROM PALEWOLF:

The following has been submitted for editing into the SHB/RO1 on this issue as a clarification: Quote:

"Major safety infractions will result in the shooter's Disqualification from the Stage or Match. 'Major' infractions include: a dropped gun, a discharge that is unsafe or a discharge that impacts less than ten feet from the shooter, violation of the 170° safety rule, "sweeping" any person with the muzzle of a firearm, and similar acts that have high potential for personal injury. Committing two (or more) Stage DQ infractions will result in a Match DQ (even on the same stage). This does NOT apply to a single action that carries multiple penalties (e.g. breaking the 170° with an unloaded firearm & simultaneously sweeping someone). There are circumstances where a single Major Safety violation will result in a Match Disqualification. (See Addendum for listing of penalties.)"
