The Prez Sez:

Howdy!

What an event – The Battle of Rogue River 2015: Famous Western Film Shootouts!

It was my honor to hear from many of the participants their unsolicited appreciation for an enjoyable shoot, good match, and the terrific food.

There are lots of folks who gave of their time, skill, and efforts to make it all possible – from the tiniest of details to some pretty amazing grueling, down-and-dirty work.

I'd like to recognize each of them in this column but that inevitably would miss someone so let's just highlight a few.

We could not have had a better crew in charge of the stage design and prep – our current and past Match Directors Imnaha Chuck and Mountain Grizz. They made the shoot a literal blast – with a nice balance of competition and fun as evidenced in their sequences and target arrangements.

Of course, all the planning and organization in the background right from the start months ago through score tracking and closing details came under the meticulous eye (and dedication) of Molly b'Dam.

Besides the rest of the officer team, many, many people stepped up and lent a hand (and often, a great deal more) to set up, maintain, and take it down (in record time, one might add).

Kindly allow me to spotlight four of those stellar individuals: our new MM Rangers – Derringer Donna, Long Henry Thompson, and New Hope Kid and our newest Regulator – Kidd Krystin. Not only are they dedicated partners but outstanding folks. They are each “good to river the river with.”

One more accolade, if you would indulge me: to our outgoing Territorial Governor: Sweetwater Jack. Thanks for keeping us up to date and representing the club so well for so many years (but you're still not off the hook creating this newsletter, pard). ;-)

Ride easy & hope to see you June 6,
— Britt

BATTLE OF ROGUE RIVER 2015 — MAY 15-17: The 2015 Battle of Rogue River is now in the history books, and if anyone didn't have a great time with us there's something WRONG with 'em!

I heard NO complaints about the stages, the range, the target placement, the weather, the hot lunches OR the food at the Saturday night banquet. It could be that wearing my ear plugs for the whole weekend may have had something to do with that, but I don't think so. The food (lunches and banquet, both) was catered by the Black Forest Restaurant (on "E" Street, in Grants Pass) and most of the comments I heard said it was some of the best chow they'd ever had at a cowboy action match. A couple of folks (out of about 140) nitpicked a bit, but I think they'd had their taste buds surgically removed. Here's a link to a fun video clip from "JED I TV" reviewing the match (Part 1, covering the Pre-match and Saturday's 6 stages). Part 2 will be coming out in a few days and I'll insert a link to it in the June newsletter. Thank you, Jed, for the coverage!

Dispatches From The Territorial Governor

Adios, Compadres!! from Sweetwater Jack

I had my belly surgery on the 6th of this month. (Couldn't avoid Dr. Schulte forever, I guess - Hope he enjoys his new "Ping" golf clubs.) I'd apparently sprung a leak somewhere and he "sewed me back up" – and with a STAPLER, no less. With my artificial shoulder, I'm mostly "Ace Hardware" now. I hope everyone had a great time at the 2015 Battle of Rogue River and you're already looking forward to 2016. From this point on, I'm turning the reins over to my old pard, Bear Bone Smith. I'm sure he'll do us all proud as Territorial Governor, and maintain the Merlin Marauders rep at the T/G Summit as we have since 2002.

— Sweetwater (One-eyed) Jack

Special Tribute For Sweetwater Jack

Well...It's going to be mighty hard to follow in the footsteps of a living legend within the Merlin Marauder Cowboy club like Sweetwater Jack. For many years he has been a tremendous benefactor for our club and contributed to our club's success in more ways than we can ever count. I'm especially glad he will still be around to lean on for his words of wisdom and knowledge of S.A.S.S. Sweetwater truly exemplifies the spirit of the "Cowboy Way" we all aspire to live by. My hat's off to a good, honorable pard who's generosity and devotion to our sport is unmatched.

— Bear Bone Smith, SASS Regulator 10719
